First Conference of Governors
of the United States.

HARMONY IS THE KEYNOTE

Chief Executives of the Commonwealths of the Nation Agree That Action Should Be Taken to Conserve Natural Resources.

Washington, May 16.—The first conference of the governors of the states of the American Union has ended. The accomplishments of the conference cannot be set forth with mathematical precision. That its immediate results are more than ample is the expression of President Roosevelt, who brought it about, and of the governors who participated.

The printed record of the conference, which will later be available to every American home, will be a compilation of facts, startling in their meaning, convincing in their universal conclusion that the states must act, and that the states and the nation must co-operate to the end that to the whole people of the nation may accrue the lasting benefit of its natural resources.

Besides the compilation of facts by the experts and the freely expressed opinion of the governors, the conference leaves as its permanent record 1,000 words of "declaration." Not a "declaration of independence," but a "declaration of co-operation."

Perhaps greater in importance than all else was the determination of the governors of the states to perfect a permanent organization whereby a heretofore unknown intimacy may be developed among the executives of the forty-six sovereign states, made strong by a common purpose, and made potent by pronouncements which may not lightly be disregarded.

Of the last day the story is one of many features.

Programme Swept Aside.

The set programme was swept aside. President Roosevelt presided throughout. He interjected remarks and speeches. He brought to the platform men who made plain the prevailing feeling that thought and care must be exercised for the future. The prepared papers were not presented, but they will be printed in the permanent record. Their place was taken first by the "declaration," which was adopted after discussion which brought to light no serious objection to its affirmations. Then William J. Bryan was presented by the president. He touched the same chords which had produced the vibration of harmony and co-operation. A governors' discussion brought many state executives to the platform, but the product was altogether that of harmony.

President Roosevelt himself, answering the one criticism—that of declaration, aroused the conference to its warmest demonstration of approval. He swept aside the "academic question" of where the line of authority should be drawn between the states and the nation. He wanted action, and what he said received endorsement at each period. He said, in part:

"Just a word of what has been called the 'twilight land' between the powers of the federal and state government. My primary aim in the legislation that I have advocated for the regulation of the great corporations has been to provide some effective popular sovereign for each corporation. I do not wish to keep this twilight land one of large and vague boundaries, by judicial decision that in a given case the state cannot act, and then a few years later by other decisions that in practically similar cases the nation cannot act either. I am trying to find out where one or the other can act, so there shall always be some sovereign power that on behalf of the people can hold every big corporation, every big individual, to an accountability so that its or his acts shall be as a whole. In matters that relate only to the people within the state, of course the state is to be sovereign and it should have the power to act. If the matter is such that the state itself cannot act, then I wish on behalf of all the states that the national government should act."

Beneficial to the People

The declaration upon which the president's remarks were predicated was presented to the conference by Governor Blanchard of Louisiana. After reading it, Mr. Blanchard stated that it proceeded upon broad lines, and purposely avoided making specific endorsements of desired projects or legislation.

It was upon the suggestion of Governor Glenn of North Carolina that future conferences should depend upon the expressed desire of two-thirds of the governors, that Governor Folk made the criticism which called forth the president's remarks.

The declaration was adopted without dissent, after which the president introduced W. J. Bryan, who received a most enthusiastic reception.

In brief, the declaration is to the effect that the natural resources of the country are threatened with exhaustion and that measures should be taken for the conservation of the natural wealth of the country.

The desire of Mrs. Roosevelt to entertain the governors was not thwarted even by the rain which fell drearily all day. A garden party had been planned by her to be held in the South grounds of the White House. The garden party was brought inside the White House, and lost none of its zest by the transformation. More than 1,500 guests were present.

Afternoon and evening trains from Washington took many of the distinguished guests from the city, and the first conference of the nation on the conservation of its natural resources passed into history.

PROMINENT MAN INVOLVED

Threatened With Arrest Because He Is Thought to Have Known for Many Months That Mrs. Gunness Killed Two Hired Men.

Laporte, Ind., May 16.—The first of the Gunness victims to be interred with Christian rites was buried in Patton's cemetery on the outskirts of Laporte. The corpse was that of Andrew K. Helgelein of Mansfield, S. D. The body was released for burial after Coroner Mack had received the reports of the Bertillon experts who have examined it and compared their findings with figures taken from the records of the Minnesota penitentiary at Stillwater.

The burial rites of the Swedish Lutheran church were read at the morgue by the Rev. August Johnson, then the coffin was placed in an undertaker's wagon and taken to the cemetery.

No services were held at the grave, the body being lowered into it by the undertaker and his assistants, who had only the light of lanterns to aid them in their work.

A new grave has been found on the Gunness farm about forty rods from where ten bodies were dug up. The ground was soft, and when a pipe was pounded into the earth evidence was given that a body had been buried there. Two other suspicious places have also been located and will be excavated.

Prominent Citizen Involved.

The arrest of a prominent citizen of Laporte is threatened as a result of investigations made by Attorney H. E. Worden, counsel for Ray Lamphere, and Mayor Darrow. The citizen who is suspected is declared to have known for many months that Bella Gunness murdered two of her hired men.

"The identification of the pieces of jawbone taken from the ruins of the Gunness farmhouse as a portion of Mrs. Gunness' skull bears out most conclusively the contentions of the state regarding the identity of the bodies found in the cellar on April 28. It is the clinching bit of evidence which should set at rest the rumors that Mrs. Gunness had escaped."

This statement was made by Ralph N. Smith, prosecuting attorney. It followed a report from Dr. C. P. Norton, a dentist, who found that the piece of charred bone presented evident characteristics which he had observed while working on Mrs. Gunness' teeth.

The search of the premises revealed almost nothing of importance. The screening of the ashes produced several additional bits of bone, but none of them is of sufficient size or well enough preserved to furnish convincing proof of their origin.

WOMAN'S EARLY LIFE.

Travelled With Her Father's Troupe in Norway.

Christiania, May 16.—In addition to the fact previously mentioned in these dispatches that Mrs. Bella Gunness, the central figure in the Laporte, Ind., murder mystery, was the daughter of Petters Paulsen, a traveling conjurer and magician, performed with her father at public fairs in Norway, the Associated Press has gathered here and at Trondhjem many additional details of her family history. Her mother was regarded as a respectable woman, her father was a Swede of Gypsy origin. He was a clever illusionist and attracted large rather than select audiences. Bella used to travel with his company everywhere in the country, and was especially well known in Christiania during the epoch when the yearly fair existed.

Julius Bastel, an old artist friend of Paulsen, was found here. He says he first met Paulsen at Karlstad, Sweden, in 1868. Bastel says he was wonderfully clever and the world's best imitator of birds. He made much money from his exhibitions. His daughter, who was about six or eight years of age, accompanied him. He is

No. 949 The most popular corset we sell

"MICHAEL'S"

"MICHAEL'S"

There are certain women of slender build who find the girdle corset ideal except for the fact that the reach over the abdomen is not great enough. Model 949 has been built with a short girdle top, but the hips and front of the corset both have a deep reach. In other words, slender figures with rather large hip developments will be perfectly accommodated by this model. The material is white and drab jean, with a top trimming of batiste binding and narrow edging of lace. Has hose supporters attached at front and hips. Sizes 18 to 24. Price $1.00.

LIQUOR IS BARRED.

Will Not Be Sold or Served in Convention Hall at Chicago.

Chicago, May 16.—The sub-committee on arrangements of the Republican national committee passed a rule which puts the Coliseum where the convention is to be held in the prohibition column. It declares that "no liquor shall be sold, served or brought into the convention hall either at the committee meetings or during the convention week."

The committee also placed a ban on portraits as adornments for the walls of the hall, and the decorations according to the present plan will be confined to flags and bunting.

The committee also decided to authorize Chairman New to arrange for a parade of the marching clubs which are expected from all parts of the United States.

PACKING PLANT BURNED.

Loss by Fire at South Omaha of About Half a Million Dollars.

Omaha, May 16.—The old plant of the Omaha Packing company, South Omaha, was destroyed by fire, together with 3,000,000 pounds of meat, involving a loss estimated at $500,000. There was stored in the burned building 2,200,000 pounds of pork and 800,000 pounds of beef, most of which belonged to the Omaha company. The ice plant was also destroyed.

Five men belonging to the fire department of the Omaha Packing company were caught by a falling wall of the Omaha Packing company's burned plant, but all escaped without serious injury.

described as having been a brutal man and lavish with his money.

Bella Paulsen was confirmed at Christiansand, South Norway, in 1875. Her family at that time lived luxuriously. Shortly afterward Paulsen retired from business and invested his savings in a glassware store at Trondhjem, but lost all and resumed the performing business. His daughter remained at Christiania, Bastel says, and in 1889 or 1890 married an engineer. Bastel has not seen her since 1890. Old Paulsen is said to have died last year at Nasvik. It is reported that the daughter before leaving Norway was a participant in a suit in the divorce court and that the case never has been finished.

Probably Fifty Perished.

Shreveport, La., May 16.—The final count of the persons who met death in Wednesday's tornado in Caddo and Bossier parishes will probably total fifty. The number at present known to have been killed is forty-four. Eight were added to the death list at Red Bay. All were negroes. Four more injured negroes were brought here.

Colored Vigilance Committee.

Des Moines, Ia., May 16.—Following two criminal assaults by negroes on white women in this city during the past few weeks the law-abiding colored people of Des Moines will form a vigilance committee to aid the department of public safety in protecting the city against criminals and to guard against the assaults. The colored vigilance committee will co-operate with a committee of whites formed for the same purpose.

A Symphony Concert

At one of the famous Cincinnati musical festivals, the late Theo. Thomas produced the Ninth, or Choral, Symphony of Beethoven, in which a vocal quartette is introduced at the end.
Though of short duration this quartette is the terror of all artists on account of its technical as well as interpretative difficulties. The artists on this occasion happened to be of world wide celebrity, viz: Mme. Semrich, soprano; Mme Schumann-Heink, contralto; Ben Davis, tenor and David Bisham, basso.

As these artists had never sung together, Mr. Thomas had promised them a short rehearsal. But through oversight, or want of time, when the hour for the appointed rehearsal arrived there was no Thomas to the dismay of the artists.

In this critical moment, about fifteen minutes before the performance, Mme.
Schumann-Heink espied Emil Oberhoffer, conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, in the audience which had begun to assemble and by signs and ejaculations, finally succeeded in making him understand that he was wanted in the "green room." Mr.
Oberhoffer obeyed and after a hurried explanation sat down at the piano to give the noted quartette the much sought rehearsal to the great satisfaction of all concerned.

Fifty selected men from the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra with two soloists will be heard at the Brainerd

TO COMPLETE ITS HEARINGS

House Investigating Committee Holds Night Sessions.

Washington, May 16.—The house
special committee which is conducting an investigation of the so-called paper trust sat until a late hour at night in an effort to complete the hearings and report its findings to congress before the session closes. From the point of view of the newspaper publishers the most significant development of the session was the introduction of a telegram from the J. R.
Booth Paper company of Ottawa, Can., stating that the company pays some of its skilled laborers higher wages than are paid in this country. Publishers say that this information goes far to bear out their claim that the statement of the wood pulp men that an increase in the price of paper was owing chiefly to concessions to labor is not in accord with the facts.

John Norris' statement that American and Canadian manufacturers have entered into an arrangement whereby Canadian manufacturers keep out of the Eastern field was denied by David S. Cowles, president of the American Paper and Pulp association, and several others prominently identified with the papermaking industry. Mr.
Cowles informed the committee that the association of which he is the head really exists in name only.

PUBLIC BUILDING IS NOW ASSURED

News Received That the Public Buildings Bill Has Passed and Carries an Appropriation

FOR BRAINERD OF $45,000

Congressman Lindbergh Wires News—Building Will be a Credit to the City

Congressman Lindbergh last night wired Postmaster Ingersoll and others in this city as follows:

"Appropriation of $45,000 has been secured for Brainerd postoffice building. C. A. LINDBERGH."

This means that the dream of the government building, which has long been entertained by the people of Brainerd is about to become a reality, and that within the next two years a structure will be erected upon the property acquired by the government at the corner of Sixth and Maple streets for a postoffice site that will be a credit to the city. The initiatory steps taken to secure this improvement were made by former Congressman Buckman during his first term at which time a bill was introduced but failed of passage, the following session of congress a bill was passed appropriating $10,000 or so much thereof as was necessary for the purchase of a site. When Congressman Lindbergh was elected to the office he took the matter of securing an appropriation for a building for this city up and introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 for such purpose and his success in the matter is announced in the telegram above quoted. At the opening of congress it was not thought that a public building bill would be passed but sufficient pressure was brought to bear upon congress to convince the members of the necessity of such a measure, especially in the northwest where public buildings with modern conveniences are needed to accommodate the growing business, and through the efforts of Congressman Lindbergh the results above noted have been attained. That it has been made possible for the erection of a suitable building in this city to accommodate the government business will be appreciated by the public and the growing business of the postoffice by the time the new building is ready for occupancy will certainly warrant the expenditure of money in its construction.

While no information is at hand it is altogether probable that work on the building will not be commenced this season although the preliminaries will be arranged, plans submitted and contract let without doubt so that it can be completed in 1909.

During the past eight years the business of the postoffice has gradually increased, the receipts from the postal account for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1907, being $16,466.50 as compared with $12,538.62 for the year ending Dec. 31, 1901. The money order business has increased in a corresponding ratio with the other business of the office, the number of orders issued in the past year being 13,546 representing over $110,000 as compared with 9,453 representing $64,636.40 issued in 1901.

The establishment of free delivery, however, has reduced the revenue from box rents of the office to $600 at the present time which were over $1,600 at the time of its installment making an additional $1,000 increase in the postal account in comparing the above figures. The postoffice was moved from Seventh street to its present quarters in the Odd Fellows block on Sixth street on July 15th, 1900, and free delivery service was established Nov. 1st, 1901, with three carriers, Russell Cass, John Thompson and J. J. Nolan. The business of the office warranted the addition of a mounted carrier the following year and on July 1st, 1902, Carl Brockway was added to the force of carriers. In 1905 and 1908 additional carriers, C. A. Nelson and Frank Russell, were appointed, making the force at the present time six city carriers, and the service now covers three business deliveries and two complete residence deliveries daily, and is considered as good as any city in the northwest.

Three rural carriers cover the county to the east, southeast and south of the city, Wm. M. Everest, Albert Young and Geo. W. Fallon being the carriers.

The office force proper consists of George W. Grewco, assistant postmaster, and who will complete his fifteenth year of continuous service in June of the present year; W. A. Spencer, mailing clerk; Maggie L. Atherton, registry and money order clerk; Clarence B. Stickney, assistant mailing and general delivery clerk; Carl Wright, general delivery clerk.

The monthly pay roll at the present time is nearly $1,300 which includes the postmaster's salary.

N. P. OFFICE MEN VS. Y. M. C. A.

The first scheduled game of the city league was played on the McKay grounds, Friday evening, resulting in a victory for the shop men by a score of 10 to 3. The game was called at 6:40, the players being slow to gather because of the threatening weather and fear of wet grounds. The following is the lineup of the teams:

N. P. Officers	Y. M. C. A.
Roderick..... c	Loom
Curry..... p	Cromwell
Shodall..... 1b	Little
R. Barron..... 2b	Carlson
Harms..... ss	Smith
Rossini..... 3b	Jacobs
Commins..... lf	Hawley
G. Barron..... cf	Hall
Plummer..... rf	Wingate

Score by innings:
Y. M. C. A.—0 0 0 1 2—3

Umpire—J. C. Manville.

The feature of the game was the pitching of Mr. Curry for the N. P. team. He is a new man here and is said to be a whilwind.

The pennant for the city league has arrived and it is a beautiful thing. It has a blue field upon which is inscribed in white letters "Champions City—1908."

The rules of the league are much stricter than in the city league last year. Each team is allowed three substitutes and no new substitutes can be used except on three or four days notice. Any team not being on time will forfeit one score for each ten minutes of delay.

The next scheduled game is for Monday night, but as there are two teams which are not yet fully organized there will probably be no game that night. It is expected however, that the teams will all be organized and the schedule in full effect in a few days.

"Mackintosh or Geo. F. Vanderveer will prosecute. The charge is manslaughter, and it has been given out that the prosecution will be merely perfunctory.

"On the morning of January 26 last Stratton, with J. F. Ives, manager of the Stimson Mill Company, ran over, and killed, while driving an automobile, Henrietta Margaret Johnson, the 6-year-old daughter of Jacob Johnson, of 7015 Twentieth Avenue Northeast.

"The child is said to have been crossing the street on its way home from Sunday school when the car struck it. The body was picked up, witnesses say, after the automobile ran a full block.

"Stratton and Ives declare the car was driven slowly and that the child, after passing in front of the machine, darted back, and was then struck. Negligence and excessive speed is denied."

KILLED AT DICKINSON

Man by Name of Parker Said to Have Been Known at Brainerd Loses His Life

Dickinson, N. D., May 14.—A middle aged man was found in a dying condition on the track immediately after the departure of the west bound limited yesterday. His injuries were about the skull and he died soon after being taken into the depot, without regaining consciousness. Advices from Brainerd, Minn., indicate the party's name was Parker. He had on a good suit of clothes under a pair of overalls and probably fell from the top of the car as he was beating his way.

Inquiry of the chief of police and others and an inspection of the directory throws no light on the identity of the man, nor is there any man named Parker missing from this part of the country so far as can be learned.

BRAINERD TO HAVE A CLEANING WEEK

President LaBar of the Civic League Has Designated Next Week

ALL HANDS TO THE WORK

A Concerted Efforts is Desired That Brainerd Shall be as it Should Be

Next Saturday night there should not be a tin can, a pile of ashes or rubbish visible in the entire city. Every resident should assist in this effort to make our city the city it desires to be.

Mayor Wise and President LaBar of the Civic league, deserve commendation for their successful efforts to secure the improvements of the railroad parks and all residents should show their appreciation of this improvement by putting their lawns in first class condition.

Dandelions are beginning to bloom and the work of exterminating these pests should begin. For ten cents a dandelion digger can be secured which makes the work quite easy. No lawn is beautiful when dandelions bloom on it.

Don't wait until Saturday to begin the work, start Monday. It may rain the latter part of the week. The work along this line last year was commented upon by many who visited our city and a yet larger work should be done this year. Put in your best effort, next week, for Beautiful Brainerd.

ASK A REHEARING

Both Sides Desire a Rehearing in the Now Famous Hart Disbarment Case Before Special Court

Both Attorney Hart and the prosecution have requested a rehearing in the case brought by a committee of the state bar association before the special supreme court some time ago, and which resulted in the disbarment of Mr. Hart for a period of six months. The contention of the prosecution is that the ruling of the special supreme court, of which Judge McClenahan, of this city, is a member, gives the bar and the people too wide a latitude in the criticism of the supreme court. Judge McClenahan, in speaking of the matter said he had not as yet seen the petition of Mr. Hart and did not know on what grounds he sought a rehearing.

RAILROAD FREIGHT RATES

Commercial Organizations Opposed to Their Advance.

Chicago, May 16.—Representatives of more than 300 commercial organizations from all parts of the country at a meeting here adopted resolutions protesting against the proposed advance in railroad freight rates, but agreeing to submit the question of the justice of such advance to the interstate commerce commission without appeal to the courts. In the event of the railroads refusing to consent to arbitration, the federal courts are to be asked to issue injunctions against the railroads in every district where an attempt may be made to increase the rates.

The conference authorized Chairman F. W. Upham to appoint a committee of fifteen to carry out the terms of the resolutions.

The proposed advance of from 10 to 15 per cent in "official classification territory," the resolution declares, means an increase in freight charges of about $100,000,000 annually, which is an "acute additional burden upon the business interests of the country."

In the meetings the past week some twenty persons have expressed their determination to accept Christ. Four young men from Little Falls have come up to Brainerd for a day in order to hear Mr. McKinney through whose labors they were recently converted.

Next Sunday Mrs. McKinney is expected to be here, and will aid her husband in the service, by singing and short talks.

PUBLIC BUILDING IS NOW ASSURED

News Received That the Public Buildings Bill Has Passed and Carries an Appropriation

FOR BRAINERD OF $45,000

Congressman Lindbergh Wires News—Building Will be a Credit to the City

Congressman Lindbergh last night wired Postmaster Ingersoll and others in this city as follows:

"Appropriation of $45,000 has been secured for Brainerd postoffice building. C. A. LINDBERGH."

This means that the dream of the government building, which has long been entertained by the people of Brainerd is about to become a reality, and that within the next two years a structure will be erected upon the property acquired by the government at the corner of Sixth and Maple streets for a postoffice site that will be a credit to the city. The initiatory steps taken to secure this improvement were made by former Congressman Buckman during his first term at which time a bill was introduced but failed of passage, the following session of congress a bill was passed appropriating $10,000 or so much thereof as was necessary for the purchase of a site. When Congressman Lindbergh was elected to the office he took the matter of securing an appropriation for a building for this city up and introduced a bill appropriating $50,000 for such purpose and his success in the matter is announced in the telegram above quoted. At the opening of congress it was not thought that a public building bill would be passed but sufficient pressure was brought to bear upon congress to convince the members of the necessity of such a measure, especially in the northwest where public buildings with modern conveniences are needed to accommodate the growing business, and through the efforts of Congressman Lindbergh the results above noted have been attained. The money order business has increased in a corresponding ratio with the other business of the office, the number of orders issued in the past year being 13,546 representing over $110,000 as compared with 9,453 representing $64,696.40 issued in 1901.

The establishment of free delivery, however, has reduced the revenue from box rents of the office to $600 at the present time which were over $1,600 at the time of its installment making an additional $1,000 increase in the postal account in comparing the above figures. The postoffice was moved from Seventh street to its present quarters in the Odd Fellows block on Sixth street on July 15th, 1900, and free delivery service was established Nov. 1st, 1901, with three carriers, Russell Cass, John Thompson and J. The office force proper consists of George W. Grewcox, assistant postmaster, and who will complete his fifteenth year of continuous service in June of the present year; W. A. Spencer, mailing clerk; Maggie L. Atherton, registry and money order clerk; Clarence B. Stickney, assistant mailing and general delivery clerk; Carl Wright, general delivery clerk.

ASK A REHEARING

Both Sides Desire a Rehearing in the Now Famous Hart Disbarment Case Before Special Court

Both Attorney Hart and the prosecution have requested a rehearing in the case brought by a committee of the state bar association before the special supreme court some time ago, and which resulted in the disbarment of Mr. Hart for a period of six months. The contention of the prosecution is that the ruling of the special supreme court, of which Judge McClenahan, of this city, is a member, gives the bar and the people too wide a latitude in the criticism of the supreme court. Judge McClenahan, in speaking of the matter said he had not as yet seen the petition of Mr. Hart and did not know on what grounds he sought a rehearing.

TO PROVE THAW IS SANE

Examination of Expert Witnesses is Begun.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 16.—Examination of expert medical witnesses in an endeavor to show that Harry K. Thaw is sane was begun here by Thaw's counsel in the habeas corpus proceedings instituted to free him from confinement at the Matteawan asylum.

An interesting development was the quoted report of A. Russell Peabody of Thaw's counsel that Thaw would go on the witness stand.

RAILROAD FREIGHT RATES

Commercial Organizations Opposed to Their Advance.

Chicago, May 16.—Representatives of more than 300 commercial organizations from all parts of the country at a meeting here adopted resolutions protesting against the proposed advance in railroad freight rates, but agreeing to submit the question of the justice of such advance to the interstate commerce commission without appeal to the courts. In the event of the railroads refusing to consent to arbitration, the federal courts are to be asked to issue injunctions against the railroads in every district where an attempt may be made to increase the rates.

The conference authorized Chairman F. W. Upham to appoint a committee of fifteen to carry out the terms of the resolutions.

The proposed advance of from 10 to 15 per cent in "official classification territory," the resolution declares, means an increase in freight charges of about $100,000,000 annually, which is an "acute additional burden upon the business interests of the country."

Special Meetings

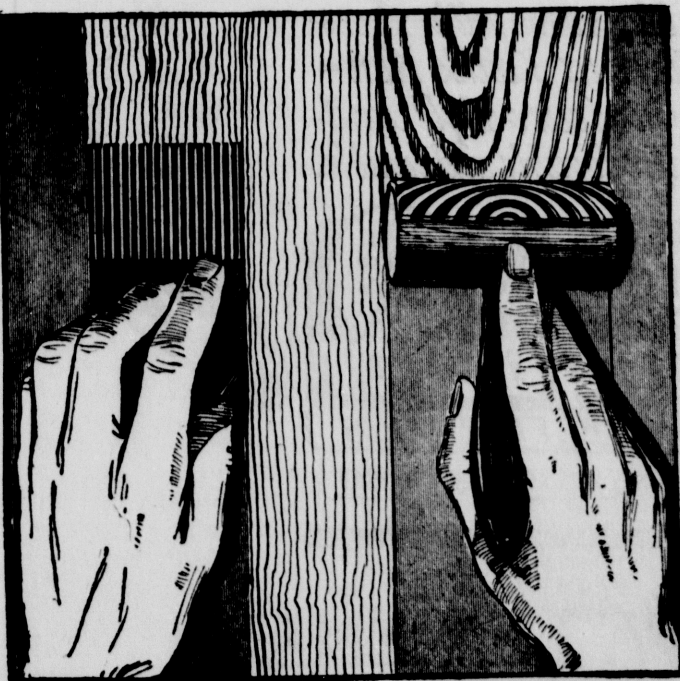

Last evening a good audience greeted Evangelist McKinney, who spoke earnestly and effectively for practical righteousness and true faith upon the theme "Saved by Grace." The results of the meetings so far have been very gratifying. The interest in the meetings has been growing from the start. The attendance has been on the increase all along. In the meetings the past week some twenty persons have expressed their determination to accept Christ. Four young men from Little Falls have come up to Brainerd for a day in order to hear Mr. McKinney through whose labors they were recently converted.

Next Sunday Mrs. McKinney is expected to be here, and will aid her husband in the service, by singing and short talks.

"Jim" Morrison, a Great Northern railroad conductor is expected for two or three days. His coming will be announced later in this paper.

Sunday evening's subject is "The Worst Woman in Town." Good music at all services is not only promised but rendered.

MRS. METSKER ACQUITTED

Woman Accused of Murder Is Set Free.

Cassopolis, Mich., May 16.—The acquittal of Mrs. Christina Metsker of South Bend, Ind., of the charge of murdering Carleton Morgan of South Bend, at 3 o'clock on the morning of April 10 outside the home of Mrs. May Green in this city, was the occasion of an unprecedented demonstration in court. Deaf to warnings and threats of arrest, the crowd cheered and clapped hands and sang. Several hundred people escorted Mrs. Metsker to the jail, where she packed up her personal effects, and from there to the depot where she took a train to South Bend. Mrs. Metsker's husband had already left for home.

Mrs. Metsker testified that the shooting of Morgan was an accident. She said that she followed her husband and Morgan to Cassopolis upon discovering a letter signed "the merry widow," and making an appointment for her husband to join a party at Mrs. Green's. She carried the revolver, she said, only for self-protection. The fatal shot was fired, she said, accidentally in the struggle that ensued when her husband, encountering her as he emerged from Mrs. Green's home with Morgan, struggled with her for possession of the revolver.

"I would like to know," said the grandfatherly father to the young man who had been eating with confidence from the money, "whether you are going to marry my daughter?"

"So would I," replied the father, "if you would marry my daughter."

"I have not been as free from rheumatism for a long time as at present, and will tell you what has done it—Matt J. Johnson's 6088, made in St. Paul—perhaps you know of them, if so give them my love for they have a dandy remedy for the ills that we boys are subject to. Everyone in our family is taking it, and all are feeling better. My wife has been so lame she could hardly get up from her chair, and my back at times gave me lots of trouble. FOR VREELAND BILL

Senate Substitutes the Aldrich Currency Measure.

THROWN INTO CONFERENCE

Dispatch With Which an Agreement Was Reached in Senate Is a Striking Example of What Can Be Done in Closing Days of Congress.

Washington, May 16.—The Aldrich currency bill was substituted for the Vreeland bill in the senate and the transfer took but little longer than was required in the calling of the roll. The effect is to throw both the senate and house bills into conference. The managers on the part of the senate, who were appointed, are Messrs. Aldrich, Allison, Hale, Daniel and Teller. The dispatch with which the agreement was reached is a striking example of what can be done in the closing days of a session of congress.

A meeting of the senate committee on finance was held in the forenoon and a decision to amend the house bill by substituting the measure passed by the senate several weeks ago was reached without difficulty. Chairman Aldrich was authorized to make the report, which he did as soon as the bill passed by the house on Thursday had been "messaged over."

There were some changes made in the senate bill by the committee, however, and it was necessary to have a new print of it prepared before it could be called up for consideration. These amendments were confined to the elimination of matter incorporated in the original Aldrich bill after it was reported from the committee. The provisions taken out were as follows:

Philippine and Porto Rico Bonds.

The use of bonds of the insular government of Porto Rico, bonds of the government of the Philippine islands and bonds of the city of Manila as securities for the issuance of emergency circulation.

The requirement that national banking associations located outside of the central reserve cities shall hold in their own vaults four-fifths of the reserves required by law, either in lawful money or securities named in the bill, but that two-thirds of the amount shall be in cash.

The prohibition against a national bank loaning money to or investing in the stock of a corporation, the officers or directors of which are officers or directors of the bank making the loan or investment.

The committee also added sections providing for a commission of nine senators and nine members of the house to be appointed by the presiding officers, to be called the National Monetary Commission, whose duty it shall be to "inquire into and report to congress what changes are necessary or desirable in the monetary system of the United States, or in the laws relating to banking."

All of the Democratic members of the committee voted to support the Aldrich bill in preference to the Vreeland measure, but on the floor of the senate all but four members of the minority voted against the passage of the bill as amended. An equal number of Republicans voted against the passage. The final vote was 47 ayes and 20 nays.

CLEANING UP LEGISLATION

House Getting Ready for Adjournment on May 23.

Washington, May 16.—The work of cleaning up legislation in the house preparatory to adjournment May 23, proceeded at a rapid pace. With only a short time allowed for debate, both the military academy appropriation bill and the omnibus public buildings bill were passed, leaving of the supply bills only the general deficiency bill, to be considered. This probably will be taken up on Monday.

In addition 825 private pension bills were put through.

A bitter and sensational attack on former Speaker Keifer of Ohio, by his colleague, General Sherwood, was a feature of the proceedings.

By a strict party vote the Vreeland currency bill as amended by the senate, was, after a lively debate, sent to conference, yeas 150; nays 103; present 6.

Remove Poisons

FROM THE SYSTEM.
There are three ways and three only, by which the human body can be rid of poisonous waste matter—the bowels, the kidneys, and the skin.

It is only when the bowels become sluggish and constipated that the kidneys play out as a result of the excessive work thrown upon them. Now, there is only one medical treatment that fully realizes this condition of affairs,

Dr. A. W. Chase's
Kidney and Liver Pills

For they regulate the bowels as well as the kidneys, and thereby remove the cause of trouble and cure the most complicated cases. You can scarcely find a case of kidney disease which did not begin with liver and bowel disorders and which could therefore have been prevented by this great prescription of the famous Receipt Book author. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. E. F. Smith, 1306 S. Washington Street, Lansing, Mich., states:

"Suffering from kidney troubles, I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, and was much pleased with their thorough action on the liver and kidneys, removing the bile, regulating the bowels and toning the kidneys up to healthy and normal action."

FOR VREELAND BILL

Senate Substitutes the Aldrich Currency Measure.

Dispatch With Which an Agreement Was Reached in Senate Is a Striking Example of What Can Be Done in Closing Days of Congress.

Washington, May 16.—The Aldrich currency bill was substituted for the Vreeland bill in the senate and the transfer took but little longer than was required in the calling of the roll. The effect is to throw both the senate and house bills into conference. The managers on the part of the senate, who were appointed, are Messrs. Aldrich, Allison, Hale, Daniel and Teller. The dispatch with which the agreement was reached is a striking example of what can be done in the closing days of a session of congress.

A meeting of the senate committee on finance was held in the forenoon and a decision to amend the house bill by substituting the measure passed by the senate several weeks ago was reached without difficulty. Chairman Aldrich was authorized to make the report, which he did as soon as the bill passed by the house on Thursday had been "messed over."

There were some changes made in the senate bill by the committee, however, and it was necessary to have a new print of it prepared before it could be called up for consideration. These amendments were confined to the elimination of matter incorporated in the original Aldrich bill after it was reported from the committee. The provisions taken out were as follows:

Philippine and Porto Rico Bonds. The use of bonds of the insular government of Porto Rico, bonds of the government of the Philippine islands and bonds of the city of Manila as securities for the issuance of emergency circulation.

The requirement that national banking associations located outside of the central reserve cities shall hold in their own vaults four-fifths of the reserves required by law, either in lawful money or securities named in the bill, but that two-thirds of the amount shall be in cash.

The prohibition against a national bank loaning money to or investing in the stock of a corporation, the officers or directors of which are officers or directors of the bank making the loan or investment.

The committee also added sections providing for a commission of nine senators and nine members of the house to be appointed by the presiding officers, to be called the National Monetary Commission, whose duty it shall be to "inquire into and report to congress what changes are necessary or desirable in the monetary system of the United States, or in the laws relating to banking."

All of the Democratic members of the committee voted to support the Aldrich bill in preference to the Vreeland measure, but on the floor of the senate all but four members of the minority voted against the passage of the bill as amended. An equal number of Republicans voted against the passage. The final vote was 47 ayes and 20 nays.

House Getting Ready for Adjournment on May 23.

Washington, May 16.—The work of cleaning up legislation in the house preparatory to adjournment May 23, proceeded at a rapid pace. With only a short time allowed for debate, both the military academy appropriation bill and the omnibus public buildings bill were passed, leaving of the supply bills only the general deficiency bill to be considered. This probably will be taken up on Monday.

In addition $25 private pension bills were put through.

A bitter and sensational attack on former Speaker Keifer of Ohio, by his colleague, General Sherwood, was a feature of the proceedings.

By a strict party vote the Vreeland currency bill as amended by the senate, was, after a lively debate, sent to conference, yeas 150; nays 103; present 6.

WAREHOUSE DESTROYED.

Fire at Minneapolis Causes Heavy Loss to Property.

Minneapolis, May 16.—Fire completely destroyed the Central warehouse at 630-700 First street north, together with its contents. The probable loss on the structure, a four-story brick building, and contents, will be in excess of $100,000.

Soon after the flames were discovered the entire building was a mass of flames.

The fire was one of the most spectacular seen here in many months.

Captain and Crew Saved.

New York, May 16.—Hundreds of dwellers along the New Jersey beach witnessed the rescue by lifesavers of the captain and crew of four men from the three-masted schooner William McGee, sighted off Sea Isle City waterlogged and flying signals of distress. The McGee afterward went to pieces at Camden Inlet.

Remove Poisons

FROM THE SYSTEM.

There are three ways and three only, by which the human body can be rid of poisons, waste matter—the bowels, the kidneys, and the skin.

It is only when the bowels become sluggish and constipated that the kidneys play out as a result of the excessive work thrown upon them. Now, there is only one medical treatment that fully realizes this condition of affairs.

Dr. A. W. Chase's
Kidney and Liver Pills

For they regulate the bowels as well as the kidneys, and thereby remove the cause of trouble and cure the most complicated cases. You can scarcely find a case of kidney disease which did not begin with liver and bowel disorders and which could therefore have been prevented by this great prescription of the famous Receipt Book author. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. E. F. Smith, 1306 S. Washington Street, Lansing, Mich., states: "Suffering from kidney trouble I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, and was much pleased with their thorough action on the liver and kidneys, removing the bile, regulating the bowels and toning the kidneys up to healthy and normal action."
